MEETING CALL TO ORDER ~ Scott Robinson, President

SPEAKERS FOR THE EVENING:

CHARLOTTE-MECKLENBURG POLICE DEPARTMENT ~ Given by Community Coordinator – Jose Campos and Officer Whipple. The Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department Safety Guide was given to the membership. Pull the Plug on Electronics Theft cards were also given out.

CODE ENFORCEMENT ~ No report was given.

CANDIDATE FOR OFFICE ~ Joyce Waddle, North Carolina Senator for District 40 asked the membership to support her in her re-election campaign.

USPS MAIL DELIVERY CONCERNS ~ Scott Robinson

The Postmasters Office for Consumer Affairs number is 704.393.4555. The Independence Deliver Office number is 704.566.3105. Routes were changed in November and some carriers are unable to complete their routes before the end of their shift. If mail is not delivered by 7 pm, carriers have been told to return the mail to the office/station. If there are questions or concerns, residents can call either of these numbers to report or inquire.

The membership was also told that they can receive informal mail by signing up for this free service. Residents will know what they should have received in the mail. This information can be sent to residents via email once they sign up.

MONTHLY MEETING SPEAKER(S) ~ Scott Robinson

Erin Barbee, Director of Missions Advancement at Aldersgate and Zack Wyatt, Executive Director with Carolina Farm Trust. Together, they discussed their idea for a farming area on the swim club property on Summerdale. There was a lot of discussion and most of the membership seemed to be excited about the idea. As things progress, the membership will be informed and will be allowed to attend meetings/events regarding this neighborhood project.

OLD BUSINESS ~ Scott Robinson

No old business was presented.

NEW BUSINESS ~ Scott Robinson

No additional new business was presented.
